

(a) ONE sightline: where the polarized emission sits (each curve has unit area)

(b) its contribution to $F(\phi)$

(c) five columns at $k = 0$: nested top hats, each running from 0 to its OWN ϕ_{col}

(d) the real sky at 30 MHz: an INTEGRAL of a ragged histogram is smooth

